

Term 2 Modules: Learning Outcomes

Effective Community Leadership

Learning Outcomes

- Provide a segmental analysis of the Muslim community and its main interlocutors
- Provide examples of good community development
- Identify key characteristics of a good community leader

Introduction to Western Intellectual History

Learning Outcomes

- Awareness of the major philosophical trends of the Western tradition
- Demonstrate critical thinking and engagement with the dominant ideas and themes which have shaped the Western mind
- Understand the role of changing intellectual paradigms and how they have influenced the modern world

Islam and Religious Pluralism

Learning Outcomes

- In-depth study of how Islamic theology understands the plurality of religions. The way
- Understanding how the Islamic tradition perceives the 'other' as well as the way it defines itself in light of the 'other'
- Analysis of different historical paradigms of relations between Muslims and non-Muslims
- Relationship between Muslim tradition in history and the modern world (with a special focus on the UK)

Modern British Political History

Learning Outcomes

- Become familiar with the history of the modern British Parliament
- Become familiar with the history of modern British political parties
- Understand the roles of Prime Minister and Cabinet, Opposition and Shadow Cabinet
- Understand the roles of the Monarch and Parliament
- Understand the relationship between Parliament and the Civil Service
- Demonstrate a critical analysis of political success and failure in the British political system

Introduction to Science

Learning Outcomes

- Understand the main scientific advances throughout history
- Introduce the students to scientific advances in the physical sciences, life sciences and the medical sciences
- Begin to consider ethical questions raised by modern science and technology

Modern Muslim History

Learning Outcomes

- Become familiar with the main people and events of the 19th & 20th century
- Learn how these events affected the modern Muslim world
- Develop an understanding of the importance of studying contemporary history
- Assess the nature of the Muslim world's experience in the 20th century